Book Anatomy: How to Write, Edit, and Self-Publish a Book

Class Time: 9:30 AM

Ages: 13+

Teacher: Jodie

Class Fee: $0

Materials Fee: $10

Description: Dive into the entire process of writing, editing, designing, publishing, and marketing a book. This class will touch on all these topics with hands-on projects like writing a picture book, editing it, designing and laying it out, and learning all the industry specific terms. We will even touch on the business of authors. How they make money, copyright, and intellectual property.

By the end of this course, students will have the tools and confidence to take their book from an idea to a finished product ready for publication. Whether you want to write fiction, nonfiction, or something in between, this class will help you bring your book to life!

Creative Foods

Math Games and Math Art

Class Time: 10:30AM

Ages/Grades: 3rd-5th

Teacher: Karin

Class Fee: $0

Materials Fee: $10

Description: Can math be fun? This question may sometimes be a struggle while learning math! This class reinforces 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade math concepts through various group/partner games and art projects. There will also be optional in-class and take-home challenges—if students get them correct, they win small prizes! Some key concepts applied in this class include:

- Mental math (with addition, subtraction, multiplication, division)
- Fractions, decimals, percents
- Geometry (shapes, lines, angles)
- And others

Activities are designed for a 3rd to 5th grade range of math abilities. Students need a basic understanding of the above math concepts (according to their grade level) to best enjoy the class. Come find out how math can be fun!

*Students should bring a folder (for handouts & challenges), pencil, colored pencils/crayons, and ruler for class.

Narnia continues

Class Time: 9:30AM and 10:30AM

Ages/Grades: 8-15 year olds and 3-6th (check schedule for age groups times)

Teacher: Erin

Class Fee: $0

Materials Fee: $15 (snacks)

Description: For this semester, we will be continuing our look at how C.S. Lewis' Chronicles of Narnia can give us insight into Biblical truths. We will be reading The Silver Chair and the Horse and His Boy which are books 4 & 5 in publishing order. Each week students will read about 4 chapters, and we will discuss them in class while enjoying snacks. The class will focus on how the themes and characters in the book reflect truths from the Bible. I will be using the book Roar by Heather and David Kopp as a reference to guide our discussion time. Students will need a copy of The Silver Chair and the Horse and His Boy. Students do not need to have attended previous classes but they do need to have read the books previously discussed (The Lion the Witch and the Wardrobe, Prince Caspian, and Voyage of the Dawn Treader) before class begins.
